MR. Howanp—Dear Sir: I have been losing my hair for the last ten or twelve years, until I became quite bald; and after trying various preparations to restore my hair, without effect, on seeing your advertisement I concluded to try your Hair Restorative. I have been applying it fourteen weeks, and my hair has become quite thick where it was bald; and now I have a good head of hair, caused by the my hair has become quite talks, where it was and now I have a good head of hair, caused by the use of your Hair Restorative. I believe it will give full satisfaction to any one who may try it. Be spectfully, yours,

Justice of the Prace.

Mr. Howard—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in making known the excellent results obtained by me, during the last three months, under your treatment. My hair commenced failing out some fourteen or fixer years gor: and for the last three or four years I have been nearly baid, and during the past summar quite so. Thave tried most of the preparations for restoring hair during that time, and they all failed. About the first of last September I was induced to try Mr. Howard's Hair Restorative. I was then perfectly baid, and having since that time been under your treatment, I have now a good head of hair. It is, therefore, with confidence that I can certify that your Hair Restorative is the only efficacious ressedy known to me for restoring the hair.

Vincinia, Nevada, Jan. 24, 1855.
To the Bald Headed:—Go to Mr. Howard and a new growth of hair on the top of your head, "or get a new growth of hair on the top of your head, "on the part where the hair ough to grow." After being troubled with a continual loss of hair anti nearly baid, I have completely, and I think permanently, restored the same by the simple use of Mr. Howard's Hair Restorative, for only a short time.

I had for years used other reimedies, but with no effect, which prompts me in highly recommending. Mr. Howard's Hair Restorative publicly as the only article that will give full satisfaction, and restors an old baid-headed bachelor or "old maid" to blooming youth and attractive heauty.

Respectfully, yours.

Wr. Howard—Dear Sir: Several years are, after an attack of fever, my hair fell out in great quantities, so that it became very thin, snow which time I have been much troubled with dandruff, and continued loss of hair. I tried one remedy fafter the other without avail, until at length, by the advice of riends who had tried if with success, I tried your remedy; and after seven days of experience of it, found a material change. At the end of two weeks it had the desired effects of removing the dandruff, leaving the scalp clean and white, and entirely stopping my hair from faling out. Fours is the only real Hair Sextorative or Preventive.

To Whom It May Concern:—Having been treabled for several years with the falling out of my hake, until I became bald headed, and feeling anxious to restore it the same as before, I tried all the Patent Medicines and Hair Restoratives I could find, without any effect whatever, until Fat length tried Er-Howard's Hair Restorative, which has truly astoniahed me. Mr. Howard commenced his treatment August ist, and at the present time I have the prospects of as good a head of hair as I ever had; all it is take is length. I take pleasure in showing my head of hair to unbellevers (which I am satisfied the majority of bald heads are), and recommend them its call on Mr. Howard. He will make thin hair grow out, and no mistake.
